Day 4 (BLD): DOLPHIN CRUISE: Sunday 26 December 2021

Our day begins with a drive to Jervis Bay to view her white sandy beaches, sparkling blue waters and incredible wildlife. Boarding the popular Dolphin Watch Cruise we roam the pristine waters of the Marine Park to discover the natural wonders beneath. From one of many vantage points aboard our vessel, keep your eyes peeled for the local Bottlenose Dolphins who will surely entertain us. Lunch follows our cruise at the Sports Club nearby. This afternoon we discover the multi award-winning Minnamurra Rainforest Centre. Set in the tranquil Jamberoo Valley we experience the splendour of the rainforest, wandering around the many interpretive displays and Aboriginal artefacts. You may also like to stroll along the network of elevated walkways through the rare remnant rainforest. Listen out for the rainforest residents – perhaps the superb Lyrebird! Departing this serenity, we arrive back at our hotel in time to freshen up before dinner.

Day 5 (BL): HEADING HOME: Monday 27 December 2021

We discover the largest Buddhist temple in the southern hemisphere this morning. Taking our guide's hand at the Nan Tien Temple, we are enlightened to the significance of this Temple to its followers. On our journey through, admire the unique visual display of the buildings, statues, shrines, not forgetting the beautiful gardens. Our lunch stop today is at the Central Coast Leagues Club before setting our sights for home.
